An In-depth Look at the Duties of Law Enforcement

featuring

CPL. CHARLES LYNCH

Ranson City Police Department

Monday, October 24

1:10 p.m. via Zoom

Lynch will discuss how local police departments that serve the local cities and communities are also involved in assisting state and federal agencies. This lecture will give an overview of the day-to-day duties of local municipal police officers and how they assist other local, state, and federal agencies.

Lynch has been with Ranson City Police Department since 2006. He has served as a member of the countywide SWAT team for two years and completed courses in crisis negotiation.
