About this publication
The President’s Report and Honor Roll of Donors recognizes donors to Shepherd University during the 2014-15 fiscal year and provides an overview of Shepherd activities and events during the academic year. This publication is produced by the Shepherd University Foundation, Office of University Communications, Office of Alumni Relations, and University Advancement.

On the cover
A sculpture by Michael Bigger is among four large, outdoor sculptures donated by John and Patricia Bain Bachner from their private collection. Bigger’s sculpture is on the lawn of Scarborough Library.

Back cover
Two stacked stone and metal sculptures by Harold “Skip” Van Houten were among the donated sculptures. Uplift (c.) is in front of the Scarborough Library while Flat Rocks Roll (c.) is located on West Campus Drive in front of Shaw Hall. A crane was required to move the sculptures into place (l.)

From the President

As I write this letter I am very new to campus, but I already know that leaving Shepherd will be hard. I am here as the interim president until the next permanent president arrives, a period that may last anywhere from five to 11 months. For me it will have been an enormous privilege to engage the university in this way. Shepherd is a fine university that gets better all the time. You are contributors to that progress, making us proud of your help and helping us create more things to be proud of.

In recent years you have supported the Scarborough Library, the Center for Contemporary Arts, Shepherd athletics, our business programs, scholarships for our students, and more. You have also advocated for Shepherd in forums from local neighborhoods to the Higher Education Policy Commission to the legislature. You are a tremendous resource for the university.

I can see what must attract you to Shepherd. A pretty campus in a beautiful part of the country. A public liberal arts college but a university that understands and values professional preparation. Solid academic values combined with winning athletic teams. A real spirit of place. And above all, students—students whose hopes and dreams and accomplishments make everything we do here worthwhile.

Among the highlights of the past year, we welcomed our first cohort of students in the Doctor of Nursing Practice (D.N.P.) program with a full complement of 15; we inaugurated an accelerated M.B.A. program; and Amy Garzon Hampton, clinical instructor in social work, became a Fulbright scholar. On the challenging side, SU has considerable resource needs that are not met, nor are likely to be met in the near future, by the state. Your support matters enormously as we move toward greater self-sufficiency while continuing to fulfill our mission of service.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Manning
Interim President

Milestones
Sylvia Manning named interim president
Dr. Sylvia Manning was selected to serve as the interim president of Shepherd University by the Shepherd University Board of Governors. Manning served as the president of the Higher Learning Commission from 2008-14. The HLC is the accrediting body for colleges and universities in 19 states, including Shepherd.

Accelerated M.B.A. program announced
Shepherd’s first accelerated master’s degree program was announced in May 2015. The accelerated M.B.A. will allow students to pursue their master in business administration while still working on their bachelor’s degree. Students accepted into the accelerated M.B.A. program are able to take up to 12 credit hours, or four classes, that count toward both their undergraduate and graduate degrees.

CATF on ‘New York Times’ summer festival list
The Contemporary American Theater Festival was included on the New York Times list of 50 essential summer festivals. The list includes festivals from across the country that feature music, dance, and theater that the Times said are “potential cultural pilgrimages.”

First doctoral degree approved
Shepherd’s first doctoral degree, the doctor of nursing practice (D.N.P.), was given final approval by the Institutional Actions Council of the Higher Learning Commission. The D.N.P. program, which is housed at the Martinsburg Center, offers three concentrations: nursing leadership-education, nursing leadership-administration, and nurse practitioner-family nurse practitioner.

Sculpture studio named in Benedict’s honor
The sculpture studio in the Center for Contemporary Arts was named in honor of Dow Benedict, professor of art and dean of the School of Arts and Humanities, during a dedication ceremony April 5, 2015 which celebrated Benedict’s 44 years teaching at Shepherd.

Shipley named president of Midwestern State
Dr. Suzanne Shipley was named the president of Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls, Texas, in March 2015. During her eight-year tenure as Shepherd’s 15th president, Shipley implemented the Crossroads Strategic Plan, which led to the university’s acceptance in the Council of Public Liberal Arts Colleges (COPLAC). She currently serves as president of COPLAC. Shipley oversaw the completion of Shepherd’s first comprehensive fundraising campaign, Create the Future, which exceeded its $20 million fundraising goal by $6 million and was completed a year early.

Student Affairs named to top 30+ places to work
Shepherd was named one of the top 30+ Promising Places to Work in Student Affairs by the magazine Diversity: Issues in Higher Education and the American College Personnel Association (ACPA). The publication teamed up with ACPA to conduct the study, which looked at things like commitment to diversity and staffing practices at higher education institutions across the country. Shepherd received a letter grade of A in almost all the categories, including bias monitoring, climate toward diversity, comprehensive new staff orientation, and perception of leadership toward diversity.

Business programs accredited by IACBE
Two of Shepherd’s business programs received accreditation from the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE). Shepherd is one of four colleges in West Virginia with IACBE-accredited programs. The bachelor of science in business administration, first accredited in 2004, had its accreditation renewed. IACBE accredited the M.B.A. with concentrations in accounting and health administration for the first time.

Recreation and leisure program accredited
The Department of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Sport received accreditation in November 2014 from the National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA) Council on Accreditation of Parks, Recreation, Tourism and Related Professions (COAPRT) for its recreation and leisure program, making it the only program in the state of West Virginia to hold the accreditation.

Shepherd named a College of Distinction
Shepherd University was honored as a College of Distinction for the 2014-15 school year. The College of Distinction designation is given to select schools to honor their excellence in student-focused higher education. Schools selected must excel in the four distinctions: engaged students, great teaching, vibrant communities, and successful outcomes.

Commencement saw record number of grads
Baccalaureate degrees were awarded to 774 undergraduates and master’s degrees to 71 graduate students during the 142nd Commencement in May 2015. Honored at the ceremony were Carolyn Malachi ’06, honorary degree recipient and commencement speaker, and Paul and Lisa Welch, recipients of the President’s Award in recognition of their contributions to Shepherd and the community.

BOG officer awarded ODU honorary doctorate
Dr. Marcia K. Brand, vice chair of the Shepherd University Board of Governors, delivered the commencement address at her alma mater Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia, May 9, 2015. She was awarded a doctorate of humane letters honorary degree.
Howard-Bostic receives Storer College award
Dr. Chiquita Howard-Bostic, assistant professor of sociology, was the first recipient of the newly created Storer College Faculty Award, which recognizes a faculty member who incorporates diversity and social justice into his or her classroom, research, scholarship, and interaction with students. She received the $1,000 award for professional development, which also highlights the significance of Storer College’s commitment to educating students of color in the Eastern Panhandle.

Grant awarded for developing mathematical models for treating cancer tumors
The West Virginia IDeA Network of Biomedical Research Excellence awarded Shepherd University a three-year, $431,762 grant to continue a multidisciplinary project that is developing and testing mathematical models to determine how to treat cancer tumors. The grant supports a project that involves math, computer science, and science students who help do research on using computer modeling to determine how immunotherapy and chemotherapy impact tumor growth. The goal is to determine what frequency and dosage of the combination therapies have the maximum benefit to cancer patients. Leading the research efforts are Dr. Qing Wang, associate professor of mathematics; Dr. Robert Warburton, professor of biochemistry; and Dr. Zhijun Wang, associate professor of computer science.

WVHEPC awards $40K for scientific equipment
The West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission’s Research Challenge Fund awarded nearly $40,000 to Dr. Dan DiLella, professor of chemistry and Department of Chemistry chair, and Dr. Peter Vila, assistant professor of environmental and physical sciences. The grant helped purchase a nuclear magnetic resonance spectrometer, which is one of the most important tools used by chemists for determining the structures of molecules, and a Eureka Manta 2 multiparameter water quality instrument that monitors aquatic systems.

Planning grant awarded for Yellow House
The Entler-Weltzheimer House (the Yellow House) may have a future as a learning lab for history and historic preservation students thanks to a $10,000 survey and planning grant from the West Virginia Division of Culture and History to the Corporation of Shepherdstown in cooperation with Shepherd. The money will be used to hire an architect to draw up plans to possibly make the house into a center for preservation education. Dr. Keith Alexander, assistant professor of history, attended a preservation workshop in Charleston March 18, 2015 where Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin awarded the grant.

Garzon Hampton named a Fulbright scholar
Amy Garzon Hampton received a 2015-16 Fulbright U.S. scholar grant. A lecturer and clinical instructor, she is spending nine months in Nicaragua where she will develop and implement a child welfare course and training program for foster parents at Universidad Nacional Autónoma de Nicaragua (UNAN–León). Garzon Hampton runs the Department of Social Work’s Title IV-E Program, which provides foster and adoptive parent training in a 15-county region through the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Services.

Anthony publishes articles
Dr. Robert M. Anthony, assistant professor of sociology, published two peer-reviewed articles, “Urbanization and Political Change in the Developing World,” which appeared in the November 2014 issue of Urban Affairs Review, offers a ground-breaking interdisciplinary approach to understanding how urban population pressures encourage political change within the developing world, and “Urban Primacy, City Size, and Political Change” which was published in December 2014 in the special issue of the International Journal of Sociology, assesses the interplay between political elites, urban development, and political change.

President’s Report and Honor Roll of Donors 2014-15

Best named an ACE Fellow
Dr. Jason Best, professor of astronomy and astrophysics, was named an American Council on Education (ACE) Fellow for academic year 2015-16. The ACE Fellows Program is designed to strengthen institutions and leadership in American higher education by identifying and preparing emerging leaders for senior positions in college and university administration. As an ACE Fellow, Best will focus on undergraduate research, an issue of concern to Shepherd University, while working with Dr. Thomas J. Botzman, president of Misericordia University in Pennsylvania, who is serving as Best’s mentor.

Mercado, Wenger receive $54K writing grant
Dr. Rebecca Mercado, associate professor of education, and Dr. Christy Wenger, assistant professor of English and coordinator of the writing program, received a $54,245 grant from the West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission to work with Berkeley County teachers through the Elementary Writing Project to help improve the writing skills of students in first through fifth grades.

Middle school girls attend STEM camp developed by Mader and Murphy
Dr. Sytil Murphy, assistant professor of physics, and Dr. Jordan Mader, assistant professor of chemistry, received a $4,145 grant from the NASA West Virginia Space Grant Consortium to develop a math and science camp for middle school girls. Seeding Your Future, held in September 2014, was designed to inspire girls to consider careers in the science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) fields.

Students
Transfer student honor society established
A chapter of Tau Sigma National Honor Society was established at Shepherd in spring 2015, the first to be established in West Virginia. The society is designed for transfer students with a minimum 3.5 GPA.

Research paper prizes awarded to students
Five students won prizes for research papers they wrote on the issue of congressional term limits for a competition open to all Shepherd students and sponsored by the Glen Burnie, Maryland-based Congressional Term Limits Foundation. Winners included Heather Uhlenhopp, Jocelyn Robinson, Graham Scott, Desiree Rose, and Victoria E. Key.

Price attends Team River Runner training
Veteran Christopher Price, who credits Team River Runner with his own personal recovery, spent a week in Key Largo, Florida, helping veterans with vision loss improve their kayaking skills at the Team River Runner OuttaItsight Leadership Clinic January 25-February 1, 2015. He and other volunteers received leadership training and learned how to guide five blind or visually impaired veterans as they paddled more than 30 miles in seven days.

Student veterans purchase new service flags
Shepherd’s Veterans Organization purchased five new service flags to be used for commencement, the annual Veterans Day program, and for other holidays and events. The flags represent the branches of the U.S. military—the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, and Coast Guard. The group raised funding by working concession stands during sporting events and selling hand-woven blue and gold key fobs and bracelets.

Shepherd’s Veterans Organization purchased five new service flags to be used for commencement, the annual Veterans Day program, and for other holidays and events. The flags represent the branches of the U.S. military—the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, and Coast Guard. The group raised funding by working concession stands during sporting events and selling hand-woven blue and gold key fobs and bracelets.

Students buy bikes for grade school kids
A group of students majoring in health and physical education raised money to purchase bicycles for a few lucky grade school-age children in Jefferson County for the holiday season 2014. The Shepherd students created the Peddling for Success project to purchase the bikes. With the $780 raised, they were able to purchase 16 new bicycles and helmets. They collected an additional 15 used bikes, tricycles, and scooters to give away.

Two students win business plan semifinal
Two students came away winners in the semifinal round of the ninth annual West Virginia Collegiate Business Plan Competition that took place at Shepherd in November 2014. Raphael Capelli, Sao Paulo, Brazil, and Alex Whalton, Hedgesville, earned the opportunity to compete in the final competition in April 2015, at West Virginia University.

Student graphic designers win AIGA contest
Graphic design students Evan Carr, Samantha Jones, Haley Shapiro, and Chase Bachtell were the winners of the fourth annual Mock Up: Student Design Challenge sponsored by AIGA Blue Ridge, the professional association for design, and hosted by Shepherd in October 2014. The students spent the day working on a brand identity that included a logo, letterhead, business cards, rack cards, a brochure, and a website for the Prosperity Center, a nonprofit community center in Frederick, Maryland.

Model UN wins two awards
The newly formed Model United Nations (MUN) team returned from its first-ever competition with two awards. The team, which was formed spring semester 2015, traveled in April to the Southern Regional Model United Nations competition in Charlotte, North Carolina. The competition included 315 participants from 36 colleges and community colleges. The Shepherd MUN team is a spin-off of a class taught by Dr. Aart Holtslag, assistant professor of political science, which is open to any undergraduate or graduate student. Honorable Delegation award winners include Margaret Bock, Hedgesville; Alyson Hehr, Wheeling; Kelsey O’Donnell, Morgantown; and Sydney Sharp, Shenandoah Junction. Dillon Enright of Columbia, Maryland, won a Best Diplomat award.

White Coat Ceremony held for nursing students
The Department of Nursing Education was one of 100 programs across the country and the only nursing program in West Virginia chosen to take part in a new initiative, the White Coat Ceremony to promote compassionate and patient-centered care. In October 2014, 58 first-year nursing students participated in Shepherd’s first White Coat Ceremony. They recited an oath, were cloaked in a white coat, and received a specially designed pin depicting a stethoscope in the shape of a heart that will serve as a reminder of their commitment to provide high quality compassionate care.

Day of Service celebrates 15 years
Students began their college careers by offering a day of volunteer service to 27 nonprofit organizations throughout Jefferson and Berkeley counties. The group of mostly first-year students arrived on campus a week before classes started in August 2014 so they could participate in the 15th Annual Day of Service. The students, along with some faculty and staff, labored at tasks like cleaning, painting, and doing yard work at places like Asbury United Methodist Church in Shepherdstown, Harpers Ferry National Historical Park, and the Berkeley County Humane Society.

Energy forum sponsored by M.B.A. program
The M.B.A. program sponsored an energy forum in March 2015. The forum was coordinated by the Student M.B.A. Advisory Council and included a panel discussion featuring Mike McKenchnie, president of Mountain View Solar in Berkeley Springs; Corky DeMarco, executive director of the West Virginia Oil and Natural Gas Association; and Chris Hamilton, senior vice president of the West Virginia Coal Association. Hoppy Kercheval, vice president of operations and host of Talkline at West Virginia MetroNews, moderated the discussion.

SU named to Community Service Honor Roll
For the sixth year in a row Shepherd University was listed on the Corporation for National and Community Service President’s Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll. The award recognizes efforts Shepherd students have made in service to the surrounding community that have resulted in meaningful outcomes.

The medallion recipient was Teresa Taylor ’90. She is pictured with Shepherd mascot Betty Lowe ’52, named Alumna of the Year. She is a member of the Emeritus Club, Shepherd University Foundation, and the Virginia Magazine. Lowe also funds three scholarships: the Virginia Lowe Ramsburg Scholarship for West Virginia nursing students and the Elizabeth S. Lowe Scholarship for juniors and seniors studying historic preservation or history through the Shepherd University Foundation, and the John D. Lowe Scholarship for secondary education majors through the Shepherdstown High School Alumni Association.

Betty Lowe ’52, named Alumna of the Year

The Shepherd University Alumni Association proudly honored Elizabeth “Betty” Lowe ’52 during the 2014-15 academic year as the Alumna of the Year. Lowe has many fond memories of Shepherd before, during, and after her time as a student. Her involvement in Shepherd organizations and activities throughout the years has had a major impact. She is still very much involved with her sorority, Phi Sigma Chi, serving as the Phi Sigma Chi alumnae president for more than 44 years. During this time in her role, she saw the Yellow House, which served as the spot for weekly sorority meetings from 1948-1960, be restored and the iron railing dedicated to the sorority. Lowe also funds three scholarships: the Virginia Lowe Ramsburg Scholarship for West Virginia nursing students and the Elizabeth S. Lowe Scholarship for juniors and seniors studying historic preservation or history through the Shepherd University Foundation, and the John D. Lowe Scholarship for secondary education majors through the Shepherdstown High School Alumni Association. Lowe, who received an honorary doctorate during the 2007 commencement ceremony, is a member of the Emeritus Club, Shepherd University Foundation board of directors, Scarborough Society, and Women for Shepherd University.

Eight alumni honored as ‘influential’ in region

Eight alumni were named to the Eastern Panhandle’s Most Influential People list by Around the Panhandle Magazine. Shepherd is proud of the efforts of our alumni in communities throughout the country. Around the Panhandle Magazine recognized eight alumni for their outstanding contributions in the region, including Ken Lowe ’71, No. 1; Manny P. Arvon ’74, No. 2; Clarence E. Martin III ’93 (honorary doctorate), No. 7; Steven Roach ’80, No. 12; Teresa McCabe ’79, No. 20; Tiffany Lawrence ’04, No. 22; Rick Wachtel ’68, No. 23; and Susan Snowden ’82, No. 25.

Hall of Fame inducts new members

During the October 2014 induction banquet held at the Clarion Hotel and Conference Center in Shepherdstown, Chris Field ’04 (football), Bob Haley (football assistant coach), and Mike Spry ’09 (baseball) were inducted into the elite group in recognition of their athletic accomplishments. The medallion recipient was Teresa Taylor ’90.

Paul Pfau ’10 competes on The Voice

Paul Pfau ’10 was chosen for season eight of the singing competition show The Voice with Pharrell Williams as his coach. He made it through the second knockout round before being eliminated. Shepherd welcomed Pfau back to campus for a performance in April 2015 at the Frank Center as part of the Performing Arts Series at Shepherd.

Shepherdstown resident Betty Lowe ’52 was named Alumna of the Year. She is pictured with Shepherd mascot Zan at Ram Stadium during Homecoming 2014.

Alumni faculty retire in May 2015

Among the group of faculty retirees in May 2015 were two alumni: Gayle Conner ’75, who retired after 31 years of service to the Athletics Department as athletic trainer, and Kathy Blue Dilley ’76, who retired after 22 years as an associate professor of nursing education. Conner and Dilley were both honored with the emeritus title designation by the Shepherd Board of Governors. Additionally, Conner was the recipient of the Ram Award from the Athletics Department for exemplifying the ideals of NCAA Division II.

Alumnae take on major roles at Shepherd

Anna Barker ’82 and Kristen DeSantis Lorenz ’10 accepted leadership positions at Shepherd in fall 2014. Barker was named vice president for finance/chief financial officer, and Lorenz was named director of admissions. As alumnae and staff, both Barker and Lorenz are helping to usher in a new era at Shepherd.

Program anniversaries and reunions celebrated

Shepherd was proud and excited to welcome alumni back to campus to celebrate exciting milestones for university programs. During the fall of 2014, the social work program celebrated more than 40 years, while the family and consumer sciences program celebrated 100 years. Ram Band alumni also returned to campus on Homecoming weekend to celebrate the dedication of a new music classroom in the Frank Center and to participate during halftime of the football game with the Ram Band in their first-ever reunion.

Alumni return for Professional Connections Day

More than a dozen alumni returned to campus in April 2015 for Professional Connections Day. Founded by the Shepherd University Alumni Association, the event has grown over the years into a partnership between the SUAA, School of Business and Social Sciences, and Career Services. The keynote speaker was Jessica Polidor Jackson ’07, associate vice president for human resources at the American Public University System, where she received her M.A. in human resource management. Jackson and her fellow Shepherd alumni spoke candidly with current students about what to expect in the workforce after graduating from college.
President’s Report and Honor Roll of Donors 2014-15
Dr. Keith Alexander, assistant professor of history, will receive further financial support for the Shepherdstown Oral History Project through the Paul and Lisa Welch Endowment. The two-year long endeavor is part of Shepherd’s historic preservation and public history program led by Alexander, who is pictured at Shepherd’s historic Yellow House. Also known as the Entler-Weltzheimer House, the structure is currently undergoing renovation as part of the same program and may one day serve as a learning lab for historic preservation students.

Previously, members of the Phi Sigma Chi sorority, which conducted meetings in the house from the 1940s through 1960, contributed $4,000 to pay for the design and installation of a new iron railing in front of the house. That effort was led by Betty Lowe ’52, president of the Phi Sigma Chi alumnae and member of the Shepherd University Foundation board of directors. In April 2015, Shepherd was honored with a preservation award by the Historic Shepherdstown Commission for its Yellow House restoration efforts.

The Joseph P. McMurran Society was established to honor those individuals who wish to provide for the future of Shepherd University with a planned gift or bequest. The McMurran Society provides recognition of donors who have made such plans and hosts events to honor the Society members as well as keep them informed about the progress Shepherd University is making and its plans for the future. The McMurran Society bears the name of Joseph P. McMurran, Shepherd’s first principal (president), who served from 1871 to 1882.

President’s Report and Honor Roll of Donors 2014-15

Shepherd University was honored to receive a $5,000 gift donation from regional wholesale electrical distributor Scott Electric. The company was founded more than 60 years ago by World War II veteran Sam Scott, who chose to give it to his employees upon his own retirement. They in turn created a nonprofit foundation with the intent to make gifts to hospitals and universities within Scott Electric territories.

“[Mr. Scott] has never been a man concerned with material wealth,” said eastern territory manager Edward Garofalo. “His lack of spending on himself really secured the future of Scott Electric. And we decided to pay it forward.”

Monica Lingenfelter, executive vice president of the Shepherd University Foundation, accepted the generous unrestricted gift on behalf of the university.

Right: Robert Jensenius ’72 graduated from Shepherd with a degree in political science and holds additional degrees in accounting and an M.S. in communications. In January 2013, he retired after a 22-year career with the York County (Pennsylvania) Chamber of Commerce/York County Economic Alliance, where he served as the executive vice president and acting CEO. Bob still resides in York, where he serves on the board of directors for several community organizations, including the York Little Theater and York County Chamber of Commerce Foundation, for which he is also treasurer. In September 2014, he joined the Shepherd University Foundation board of directors and has been an active participant in its meetings over the past year. He is seen here conversing with Foundation president Mike Smith ’89 at the spring board meeting held May 2015.

President’s Report and Honor Roll of Donors 2014-15
Members of the Leadership Circle have been instrumental in providing the resources necessary to advance Shepherd's strategic priorities and help raise the university’s profile through outstanding programs and academics. Leadership Circle donors help ensure the future of Shepherd University through annual unrestricted gifts of $1,000 or more. The uncommon commitment shown by alumni, friends, faculty, staff, executive leadership, and board members demonstrate the true passion and pride that so many feel for Shepherd.

We are proud to recognize the donors listed as members of the Leadership Circle, who add strength to Shepherd’s mission and positively impact students, faculty, and staff through their philanthropy.

Right: Though Dr. William “Bill” Pringle’s path to higher education was, by his own admission, somewhat winding, it began and ended at Shepherd University. After graduating from Charles Town High School in 1952 and serving as a U.S. Marine Corps sergeant in Korea for three years, the Summit Point native attended Shepherd for several years before transferring elsewhere to complete his studies.

He attended dental school at West Virginia University and graduated from Temple University School of Dentistry for Orthodontics before opening a dental practice with five satellite offices in north central West Virginia, where he remained from 1967 through his retirement in 1992. Bill returned to Shepherd two decades later, following a post-retirement career as a ski instructor in Breckenridge, Colorado, and graduated in 2012 with a Regents bachelor of arts (R.B.A.) degree. Along the way, he established the Dr. Bill Pringle Scholarship in appreciation of his own Shepherd education. The award is designated for Shepherd students majoring in science. Dr. Bill Pringle ’12 passed away on January 8, 2015 at his residence in Bridgeport surrounded by family.

Left: In addition to her many accomplishments as president of Shepherd University for the past eight years, Suzanne Shipley also left an impressive philanthropic legacy. It began in 2007 with the Create the Future Endowment, which she established with her husband, Randy Wadsworth, in support of students studying abroad. Additionally, each year a portion of the endowment’s interest is allocated for expenses incurred by faculty conducting research overseas. Having both been privileged to travel abroad during their college years, the couple created the scholarship knowing what a remarkable learning experience travel can offer.

In 2014 Shipley and her brother, Wes Shipley, established the Mary Jane Shipley Scholarship in honor of their mother on her 90th birthday. Supporting female athletes participating on intercollegiate sports teams, the award reflects Mary Jane Shipley’s love of tennis, through which she was able to express her competitive nature. Dr. Shipley has always felt her mother’s work on the court demonstrated how practice and persistence can turn into results.

Mary Jane Shipley herself took an active role in establishing the Shipley legacy at Shepherd when she created the Walker Horton Shipley Music Scholarship in memory of her late husband, who was always happiest listening to or playing music. Accordingly, the scholarship supports students pursuing studies in the area of music.

Dr. Shipley is pictured at a 2014 football game with her namesake, Zan, the Shepherd ram mascot.

President's Report and Honor Roll of Donors 2014-15
Additionally, during the 2014-2015 academic year, Michael was one of 20 students to receive the First in Your Family Scholarship, which resulted from a 10-year initiative developed in 2000. The multifaceted program sought to assist regional high school students from low-income families through college preparatory sessions, work site visits, and incentive-based scholarships. When the program ended in 2010, donors Tom and Dee Taylor, of Harpers Ferry, chose to give the remaining funds to Shepherd as a way of saying thank you to the university for providing space and volunteers for the First in Your Family college preparatory sessions. For Michael, the three scholarships offered him a chance to chase his goals, which include earning a college degree.

Right: A senior majoring in biology with a concentration in pre-veterinary medicine, Carrie Arvin, of Falling Waters, is the recipient of two general academic Foundation awards—the Thomas and Sherry Lurry Memorial Scholarship and the Helen and Albert Alvarez Memorial Scholarship.

The former was created by Thomas M. Lurry in support of residents of West Virginia, while the latter was established by Ramon Alvarez ’62 and his wife, Mary, in honor of Ray’s deceased parents. While neither was able to complete a college education, both of his parents stressed the value of higher education, inspiring Ray to enter Shepherd. He has since served as president of the Foundation’s board of directors and currently serves as its vice president. He is also the long-time president of the Scarborough Society of Shepherd University.

Carrie is appreciative of her scholarship awards, saying, “Through the support of my scholarships, I will be able to complete my undergraduate career debt-free, allowing me to move on to veterinary school without unnecessary financial burden.”

Founding Members: Women Investing in Shepherd

A women’s giving circle with a unique and extraordinary philanthropic mission

Women Investing in Shepherd (WISH) was created in 2014 to inspire, educate, and develop the amazing potential of women’s philanthropy. WISH was formed as a philanthropic subsidiary of Women for Shepherd University and is sponsored by the Shepherd University Foundation. The gifts from this women’s giving circle fund high-impact grants to Shepherd University learning programs and the tri-state nonprofit community. WISH affects positive changes, brings new funding resources, and makes philanthropy accessible.

Shepherd University celebrates these outstanding women who chose to become founding members of this unique and significant philanthropic circle. Special thanks to Mary “Peachy” Staley ’70, Liz Oates, Carolyn Fleenor ’78, and Bev Hughes ’71 for their outstanding leadership and dedication to WISH.

To learn more about the organization and how to become a member, please contact the Shepherd University Foundation at 304-876-5021, mpeterso@shepherd.edu or visit the website at shepherduniversityfoundation.org and click on Get Involved.
