

Import Content from another site

On the site you want to send data into, go to the site editor.

Then click "Import from site".

Now click "Click here to merge content from another course site into this course site".

Next choose the course you want to take data from and then hit continue.

Next choose the tools you want to move and hit finish.