From the President

Change and uncertainty made the 2019-2020 academic year a notable one. The great disrupter—COVID-19—tested us, but we proved that we could be resilient in the face of adversity and continue to embrace our pursuit of excellence.

The 2019-2020 academic year was a study of contrasts. The fall 2019 semester represented the traditional campus experience with an emphasis on classroom teaching that many of our alumni fondly remember from their days at Shepherd, while the spring semester 2020 ushered in a different learning, teaching, and working experience that was anything but traditional.

Although the COVID-19 pandemic sent everyone home at spring break in March 2020—to teach, study, and work remotely, Shepherd continued activities, public lectures, and presentations, albeit via Zoom and Facebook Live. Technology allowed us to quickly retool our academic delivery system so our students could successfully complete the semester.

This issue of the 2019-2020 President's Report and Honor Roll of Donors features our faculty, students, and alumni who continued pursuing their activities and projects, with the pandemic perhaps slowing them down a bit but certainly not defeating them. They, like all of us, found innovative ways to accomplish their goals, and we've highlighted some of them in this publication. I could not be more proud of their achievements and successes.

The second purpose of this publication, and perhaps the most important, is to honor and recognize our donors and friends whose generosity has allowed Shepherd to support our students with much-needed financial assistance in the form of scholarships and to continue to fund the university's programmatic needs.

Your generosity in support of Shepherd, even as there are many other needs in our local community and nation during the pandemic, is deeply appreciated.

Our continuing success is due to your financial and volunteer support—and commitment to a better tomorrow through education.

Dr. Mary J.C. Hendrix '74
President

BOG authorizes creation of diversity and equity office

The Shepherd University Board of Governors at its June 11, 2020, meeting passed a resolution directing Shepherd's president to establish and maintain as a direct report an administrative Office for Diversity and Equity. The board, in consultation with the president, found that a commitment to tolerance, social justice, and diversity is essential to the educational mission of Shepherd University. Board chair Eric Lewis '97 also announced the creation of a Board of Governors Committee on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. This committee works closely with Shepherd's Executive Leadership Team and other campus committees.

FASTEnER Lab creates protective gear to prevent COVID-19 spread

In March 2020, Shepherd's Fine Arts, Science, Technology, Engineering, Educational Resource (FASTEnER) Lab used its equipment to provide additional protective gear to medical personnel and first responders on the front lines fighting COVID-19. Shepherd produced more than 3,000 face shields for first responders, faculty, staff, students, and community members; 20 protective gurney canopies for Jefferson County ambulances; 100 mobile dividers for music; a few custom hanging dividers; nearly 200 standard dividers; 105 mobile wall dividers; and 11 hanging dividers. The FASTEnER Lab team also advised dining services on installing 41 hanging dividers for campus food service areas, and the silicone molds developed by Kay Dartt, clinical faculty/3D fabrication manager, and Chase Molden, theater technical director, were used by the West Virginia National Guard to make more than 5,000 N95 masks. The effort, led by Dartt, benefited from the loan of on-campus 3D printers as well as printers from local schools. Partners included the West Virginia National Guard, Berkeley County Schools, Jefferson County Schools, Saint Joseph School, Jefferson Medical Center, and Shepherdstown Fire Department.

Social Work Program reaffirmed for eight years

The Social Work Program accreditation has been reaffirmed for eight years by the Council on Social Work Education, which is recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as the sole accrediting agency for social work education in the United States. CSWE's decision to reaffirm accreditation for eight years means that the program has met or surpassed all educational and accreditation policy, and no follow-up or progress reports need to be filed. CSWE looks at four major areas when making reaccreditation decisions—the program's mission and goals; curriculum, with an emphasis on examining field education; efforts toward diversity; and assessment of student learning outcomes. As part of the reaffirmation process, CSWE sent a site visitor to Shepherd to meet with administrators, faculty, staff, and students.

OPPOSITE PAGE: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Shepherd honored the graduating Class of 2020 with online virtual celebrations that featured remarks by President Mary J.C. Hendrix, Provost Scott Beard, Dean Richard Stevens, guest speakers Dr. Jim Denova and alumna Judee Ann Williams '01, and video clips provided by graduates. Fifty-six graduate students were awarded master's degrees and doctorates, and 622 students received bachelor's degrees. Williams, co-head of CAA Social Impact at leading entertainment and sports agency Creative Artists Agency, served as the baccalaureate degree guest speaker and was awarded a Doctor of Humane Letters honorary degree. Denova, vice president of the Claude Worthington Benedum Foundation, delivered remarks to master's and doctoral degree graduates and received the Doctor of Education honorary degree.

Ram Pantry food bank opens on campus

Shepherd University cut the ribbon on its new food bank, the Ram Pantry, located in Boteler Hall on West Campus. The pantry has food available to on-campus, commuter, non-degree seeking, dual enrollment students with the 15 or fewer meal plan or no meal plan, and employees.

Popular Dinner with Strangers enters second year

Shepherd University continued its popular Dinner with Strangers, which matches students with members of the community for conversation over a meal. In 2019-2020, graphic design students were hosted by Ellen Smith, a retired graphic design professor; Regents Bachelor of Arts students were hosted by John and Geneva Yost; and sociology students were welcomed to the home of attorney Aaron Amore and his wife, Ann Paonessa. Dinner with Strangers, gives students the opportunity to get to know community members who are willing to host a meal in their homes.

BOG authorizes tobacco-free campus beginning January 1, 2020

The Shepherd University Board of Governors approved a resolution at its November 14, 2019, meeting that authorized Shepherd to become a tobacco-free campus on January 1, 2020. The tobacco-free policy was endorsed by the Student Life Council, Classified Employees Council, Faculty Senate, and the Executive Leadership Team during the 2019 fall semester.

Accounting students rank nationally on CPA exam pass rate

Accounting students ranked nationally for certified public accountant exam pass rates for first-time takers in 2018. Shepherd students ranked 28th out of 242 institutions nationwide with 10 to 20 first-time test takers. Additionally, Shepherd had the second highest pass rate in the state of West Virginia for first-time testing events. Shepherd had the highest statewide pass rate in the state in 2017, 2015, and 2014.

Shepherd receives $130K grant to launch PBM Center of Excellence

The Shepherd University Foundation received a $130,000 grant from the Foundation for Photobiomodulation Research to help the School of Nursing develop the Shepherd University PBM Center of Excellence. This first donation is part of a larger grant totaling $470,000 over the next three years to support the program, which will include curriculum development and equipment purchases. In photobiomodulation therapy, a practitioner applies low-level lasers or light-emitting diodes to the surface of the body to improve tissue repair and reduce pain and inflammation. PBM is seen as a way to treat some pain-causing medical conditions instead of using opioids.

HLC approves distance education courses and programs

The Higher Learning Commission (HLC) has approved a request by Shepherd to offer distance education courses and programs. The approval will allow Shepherd to offer academic programs in which 50 percent or more of the required courses may be taken online. Dr. Jason Best, director of strategic research initiatives and HLC accreditation liaison officer, said expanding into distance learning will allow Shepherd to attract and retain not only traditional undergraduate students, but also groups such as adult learners, working adults, and graduate students.

Allen awarded fellowship to Holocaust Institute for Teacher Educators

Dr. Jason Allen, assistant professor of education, was awarded a fellowship to attend the Holocaust Institute for Teacher Educators (HITE) June 1-4, 2020, at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C. HITE works with university and college education faculty to prepare them to incorporate Holocaust content and pedagogy into methodology classes so education students are better prepared to teach about the Holocaust when they become teachers.

Howard-Bostic named AVP for diversity, equity and inclusivity

Dr. Chiquita Howard-Bostic, associate professor of sociology, was named associate vice president for diversity, equity, and inclusivity, a position created by Shepherd's Board of Governors at its June 2020 meeting. Howard-Bostic reports to the president and serves on the Executive Leadership Team. She serves as a key leader on the Diversity and Equity Committee and participates in university strategic planning in the areas of diversity, inclusion, and social justice.

Groff named 2019 West Virginia Professor of the Year

Dr. Jeff Groff, professor of physics and chair of the Department of Environmental and Physical Sciences, was named the Faculty Merit Foundation of West Virginia 2019 Professor of the Year. Groff has been involved in helping develop infrastructure at the Shepherd University Agricultural Innovation Center at Tabler Farm. He received grant money to have solar energy production installed on the roof of Scarborough Library and at Tabler Farm. Groff also keeps and does research on honeybees, a pastime that has taken him to conferences and beekeeping organizations throughout the area.

Slocum-Schaffer awarded $31K grant to facilitate student transfers

Dr. Stephanie Slocum-Schaffer, associate professor of political science, is participating in a Peer-to-Peer Pedagogical Partnership that was awarded a $31,000 grant from the American Political Science Association. The partnership, which includes Shepherd, Hagerstown Community College, University of Maryland, American University, and Montgomery College, aims to facilitate the successful transition and educational achievement of students transferring from two-year to four-year institutions.

Gordon teaches in Taiwan at Shepherd's partner institution in fall 2019

Dr. David Gordon, professor of history, spent fall semester 2019 at one of Shepherd's partner institutions, Nanhua University in Chiayi County, Taiwan. Gordon taught five classes during the fall—three face-to-face for Nanhua students and two online for Shepherd students.

Vance is co-founder of CPA society chapter

Dr. Cindy Vance, associate professor of accounting and chair of the Department of Accounting, was a co-founder of the Shenandoah Valley Chapter of the Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants. The organization provides local opportunities for CPAs and accounting students.

Carlson publishes sight-reading paper in music journal

Research by Dr. Rachel Carlson, assistant professor of music, titled "Sight-Reading Insights from Professional Choral Singers: How They Learned and Implications for the Choral Classroom," was featured in the August 2019 issue of the Choral Journal. Carlson's study investigated top professional choral singers' perceptions on how they learned to sight-read and how they use sight-reading in their work.

Cook's composition selected as a semifinalist in 2019 American Prize

A composition by Dr. Mark Andrew Cook, professor of music, received a semifinalist award in the 2019 American Prize in Composition Band Division. He received the award for his composition "Dawn at Fox Gap," which was inspired by Fox Gap on South Mountain in Maryland.

Shurbutt wins Appalachian Studies Association's teaching award

Dr. Sylvia Bailey Shurbutt, director of the Center for Appalachian Studies and Communities, was awarded the Stephen L. Fisher Award for Excellence in Teaching for postsecondary teachers by the Appalachian Studies Association.

Hancock selected to lead state nursing study

Dr. Mary Hancock, associate professor of nursing, was selected to lead a Future of Nursing West Virginia Bedside Nurse's Study that will look at what factors contribute to a shortage of patient bedside nurses. She was chosen to lead the study based on her experience with qualitative research, nursing workforce development research, and service.

Huffer named co-director of Photobiomodulation Center of Excellence

Dr. Kelly Watson Huffer, associate professor of nursing, was named a co-director of the newly formed Photobiomodulation Center of Excellence at Shepherd. The creation of the center was made possible by a multiyear grant from the Foundation for Photobiomodulation Research.

Legreid honored by Phi Beta Delta international scholars group

Dr. Ann Marie Legreid, associate dean, College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences, received the 2020 Yvonne Captain Faculty Award for Outstanding Contributions to International Education from Phi Beta Delta Honor Society for International Scholars in May 2020. Also honored by the society was Sharon Ann Carpenter, administrative secretary senior in the College of Arts, Humanities, Social and Behavioral Science, who received the Edward S. Blankenship Staff Award for outstanding work in support of a chapter.

Penland presents paper at international conference

Dr. Jennifer L. Penland, associate professor of education and director of the School of Education, attended the Fourth Canadian International Conference on Advances in Education, Teaching, and Technology at the University of Toronto July 27 and 28, 2019. Penland presented a paper titled "Exploring Fractal Imagery to Promote Culturally Responsive Dialogue and Healing: An Indigenous Focus." Penland was awarded Best Presenter in her session, Studies of Teaching and Learning, and served as a session chair for Education and Teaching in Different Lands.

Francisco Mitchell, an economics major from Centreville, Virginia, spent summer 2019 gaining experience at Invenery's headquarters in Chicago, where he interned in the company's asset management group, which assists in maximizing the profitability of Invenery's operating wind, solar, storage, and thermal assets. Mitchell was assigned to work on various large and small projects that included producing budget reports, a loss production analysis, and operations and maintenance cost analysis.

Seven environmental studies students were able to experience firsthand what they learned in the classroom during a 10-day trip during summer of 2019 to Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks. The trip was part of a special topics class, Ecology, Geology, and Cultural Significance of Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks, taught by Dr. Jeff Groff, chair, Department of Environmental and Physical Sciences. The students spent six weeks in the classroom preparing for the trip, which included one day in Idaho, six nights in Yellowstone, and three nights in Grand Teton camping, hiking, backpacking, exploring the parks, and seeing what they had talked about in class.

Two English majors took part in Hood College's Discovering the Humanities Conference on September 14, 2019. Ashley Hess, Martinsburg, presented a paper titled "Ovid's Metamorphoses as a Feminist Text," which she wrote for a Greek Mythology course, and Fiona Tracey, Shepherdstown, presented a paper titled "Rejection, Emulation, and Exploitation: Feminism in the Columns of Fanny Fern and Candace Bushnell," which she wrote for an American Literature to 1900 class.

Madison White, an engineering sciences major from Hamilton, Virginia, and Johnnie Meredith, a computer information and sciences major from Charles Town, came away winners from the European Innovation Academy July 7-26, 2019, in Turin, Italy. The academy was a three-week extreme entrepreneurship accelerator with 400 participants from 75 different countries. White and Meredith each joined different teams to help develop startup businesses. White's team won the Nixon Peabody IP Spark Award, a $15,000 group prize to patent or trademark the app or any other idea. Meredith's group created InnoPhysio, an app for doctors to more securely and legally share patient data. His team was among the top 10 that gave final pitches to investors and won three hours of future mentoring from one of the keynote speakers, Dirk Lehmann.

President's Report and Honor Roll of Donors 2019-2020

Shepherd's chapter of Sigma Tau Delta was one of four to receive an Outstanding Chapter award from Sigma Tau Delta International English Honor Society. The Outstanding Chapter Award is designed to recognize local chapters that have exhibited outstanding motivation, creativity, and service in the preceding year. The Shepherd chapter won a $500 prize. In making the award, Sigma Tau Delta International Honor Society cited the Shepherd chapter for exciting literacy-related programming, significant contributions to the annual convention, and impressive accomplishments by individual members that would be helpful as models for other chapters.

Honghui Pang, a business administration major from Frederick, Maryland, and president of the Financial Planning Club, and Dr. Janine Sam, assistant professor of business administration, attended the Certified Financial Planning Board Diversity Summit in Washington, D.C., November 13, 2019. Each year, the summit brings together thought leaders, financial planning students and academics, and other interested parties to address diversity and inclusion issues in the financial planning profession.

A group of nursing students taking the Population Health class spent fall semester 2019 spreading the word to middle school students that vaping is hazardous to their health. The nursing students were assigned to Harpers Ferry Middle School for the clinical portion of the class and worked with the school nurse to identify a good topic to research and present, which resulted in a PowerPoint presentation titled "Escape the Vape."

Political science and economics major Jordan Jalil, of Charles Town, was named a 2020 Truman Scholarship finalist. Jalil was one of 190 candidates from 136 colleges and universities selected as a finalist. The scholarship is given by the Truman Foundation, which was created in 1975 soon after President Harry S. Truman died. Instead of a brick and mortar monument on the mall, President Truman wanted to support the next generation of public service leaders.

Mikayla Hamrick, an English major and communication and new media minor from Inwood, was the recipient of a West Virginia Press Association Foundation 2020 summer internship at a West Virginia newspaper and a college scholarship. She was chosen for the monthlong paid internship at any publication in West Virginia (she selected The Journal in Martinsburg) and received a $1,000 scholarship.

Although unable to compete in the Southern Regional Model United Nations Conference in Charlotte, North Carolina, in March 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Shepherd's Model UN Angolan delegation still came away the winner of Outstanding Position Paper, submitted two weeks before the conference started and evaluated by the conference staff.

OPPOSITE PAGE: The biennial President's Reception for Donors and Scholars brought together student scholarship and faculty excellence award recipients, their family and friends, university leadership, prominent faculty and staff, and Shepherd alumni and friends who have established privately funded awards through the Shepherd University Foundation. Held in November 2019 and hosted by President Mary J.C. Hendrix '74 and the Shepherd University Foundation, the event highlighted the achievements of four outstanding student scholarship recipients, pictured here with President Hendrix, Christopher Colbert '95, Monica Lingenfelter, and Pat Moler Egle '60, who serves on the Foundation's board of directors and stewards several privately funded awards. Pictured are (l. to r.) Shepherd University Foundation President Chris Colbert '95, Shepherd President Mary J.C. Hendrix '74, senior Jennifer Willett, senior Carter Davis, senior Shenandoah Sokel, junior Korinne Myers, Pat Moler Egle '60, and Monica Lingenfelter, executive vice president of the Shepherd University Foundation.

LEFT: Bethany House, an outreach by Community Networks, Inc., was one of two community nonprofits to receive grant awards in 2019 from Women Investing in Shepherd (WISH), a women's giving circle sponsored by the Shepherd University Foundation. Bethany House provides emergency shelter services 24 hours a day, seven days a week to homeless women and children in Berkeley, Jefferson, and Morgan counties. Bethany House Director of Services Bunny Shaw is seen here at the WISH Grant Awards Celebration in August 2019 greeting WISH Advisory Team member Mary "Peachy" Staley, while fellow team members Bev Hughes, Liz Oates, and Carolyn Fleenor look on with Monica Lingenfelter, executive vice president of the Shepherd University Foundation.

LEFT: In early March 2020, approximately 150 area high school students attended the first Student Leadership Academy hosted by Shepherd's new Stubblefield Institute for Civil Political Communications where, coincidentally, they participated in a simulation of a virus pandemic. Founded in July 2019, the institute was made possible by a generous gift through the Shepherd University Foundation by Drs. Bonnie and Bill Stubblefield, who attended the leadership academy event. "This reconfirms the faith we have in the youth of today," Bill Stubblefield said. "I think we certainly witnessed the leaders of the future. It was both stimulating and heartwarming watching these young people do as well as they did."

LEFT: Shepherd University will be home to a new Center for Financial Education and the Hoxton Endowed Lectureship for Financial Planning thanks to a generous donation by community members Rob and Mary Logan Hoxton. The center will promote financial education by creating curriculum and activities, raising money for scholarships, conducting research, and offering financial planning education to the community. Additionally, they funded the Hoxton Endowed Lectureship in Financial Planning to support faculty members in the financial planning program. The Hoxtons envision helping Shepherd graduates provide financial planning advice throughout the state and in the local community. "If we can improve financial literacy and the availability of high quality fiduciary financial advisory services by bringing students from other areas into Appalachia and teaching them to be great financial planners, then they can go back to their communities to provide those services in areas where it's sorely needed," said Rob.

Help inspire Shepherd University students to Learn, Lead, and Serve

“My scholarship awards have alleviated financial stress and made academic success more attainable by allowing me to devote more time to my studies.”

Allison Beverlin
*Senior, Biology/Pre-Med
Fort Ashby*

Elsie Brown and Joseph J. Renn Memorial Scholarship, The Shepherd Fund

Shepherd University students commit themselves academically and financially to Shepherd at a formative time in their lives, placing in us their hope and trust for a brighter future. In turn, Shepherd offers them an environment to pursue a multitude of academic, cultural, entrepreneurial, and continuing education opportunities. The continued financial support of our alumni and friends is an invaluable part of this synergetic process. Private gifts through the Shepherd University Foundation are crucial in funding student scholarships, academic programs, and faculty awards. The Shepherd Fund in particular provides vital financial support for virtually every aspect of the Shepherd experience, including student scholarships. Gifts of any size combine to make an extraordinary impact!

With your support, we can enrich the student experience and provide Shepherd graduates with the adaptive skills needed for a lifetime of success.

Your Gift Will Make A Difference!

Joseph P. McMurran Society

The Joseph P. McMurran Society was established to honor those individuals who wish to provide for the future of Shepherd University with a planned gift or bequest. The McMurran Society provides recognition of donors who have made such plans and hosts events to honor the Society members as well as keep them informed about the progress Shepherd University is making and its plans for the future. The McMurran Society bears the name of Joseph P. McMurran, Shepherd's first principal (president), who served from 1871 to 1882. This list includes all living members during the 2019-2020 year.

LEFT: A biology major from Martinsburg, junior Michael Watcher is a recipient of the Elsie Brown and Joseph J. Renn Memorial Scholarship, established by Shepherd alumnus Dr. Joseph J. Renn III '60 in honor of his parents, Elsie '23 and '51 and Joseph Renn. He and his wife, Robin, also created the Joseph J. Renn III, M.D., and Robin L. Renn Endowed Scholarship for students pursuing a degree in the biological and medical sciences.

"This scholarship has reduced the financial burden that comes with attaining a higher education in current times," said Michael of his award. "I am grateful that scholarships like this one are available to deserving Shepherd students."

RIGHT: Lois Pierce '73 attended the WISH Grant Award Celebration in August 2019 at which Women Investing in Shepherd (WISH) awarded four grants totaling $123,000 collectively to two community nonprofits and two Shepherd learning projects. Lois is a founding member of the women's giving circle and serves on its grant committee. Sponsored by the Shepherd University Foundation, WISH was created to inspire, educate, and develop the potential of women's philanthropy through high-impact grant-making. Membership for WISH in 2020 is being accepted until December 31.

LEFT: The C. Brown and Hazel M. Hendricks Scholarship supports students majoring in home economics, family life, or related fields. The late Hazel McDonald Hendricks was a valued member of the Shepherd community. She was an assistant professor emerita of home economics, a director emerita of the Shepherd University Foundation, and a member of the Joseph P. McMurrin Society. Hazel's legacy gift will continue to fund countless scholarship awards for deserving Shepherd students for generations to come—students like Caroline Kayes, a senior biology major from Martinsburg.

Shepherd UNIVERSITY

President's CLUB

Members of the President's Club have been instrumental in providing the resources necessary to advance Shepherd's priorities and raise the university's profile through outstanding programs and academics. President's Club donors help ensure the future of Shepherd University through annual unrestricted gifts of $1,000 or more. The uncommon commitment shown by alumni, friends, faculty, staff, executive leadership, and board members demonstrates the true passion and pride that so many feel for Shepherd.

Where there's a WILL, there's a way.

Everyone needs a legal will, yet too often we put off the process of making one year after year. Why not make this the year to get your plans in order?

Through a new partnership with FreeWill, the Shepherd University Foundation is pleased to offer alumni and friends free access to an online platform where users may create a will in less than 25 minutes.

Take advantage of this free resource at freewill.com/shepherd and support the people and causes you care about most. Though it's not a requirement, your choice to include a gift to Shepherd in your estate plans will have a lasting impact on the university and its students, programs, and faculty.
