Spanish Education (5-Adult) Program Goals

The major in Secondary Education, Spanish Education Teaching Field, seeks to help prepare students to live and teach in a complex, technological, and diverse world by introducing them to varying perspectives offered by a thorough study of Spanish and Latin American literature and the Spanish language. Through these perspectives, sociological and personal barriers may be broken down, and the possibilities as well as the paradoxes of human existence may be better understood and taught.

The purpose of the Spanish Education specialization is to:

- Encourage students to think critically and to communicate their thoughts effectively by helping them develop the skills necessary to understand, utilize, and teach the Spanish language;
- Contribute to the liberal arts education of all students by exposing them to the diversity and richness of Spanish and Latin American literature and culture; and
- Prepare candidates within Secondary Education, Spanish Education Field, to become reflective problem solvers capable of teaching Spanish on the middle and secondary levels in a country as ethnically diverse as ours.

Juncture I Requirements:

- Must have an overall GPA of 2.75 and a 2.75 Shepherd GPA (incl. Transfer Students).
- Must have a C or better in all Specialty and Professional Courses (speak with your advisor).
- Must have passed the PRAXIS I Core or provided proof of exemption as determined/required by the State of West Virginia. Please speak with your advisor regarding the exemptions/requirements/deadlines regarding the PRAXIS I Core exams.
- Contact your advisor with any questions about any additional course work or requirements that must be completed before applying for Juncture I.

Juncture II Requirements:
