ALUMNI HIGHLIGHTS

August Highlight - Dr. Joshua Cross '03

Dr. Joshua Cross has built a life rooted in storytelling, education, and community. A native of Beckley, West Virginia, Cross first visited Shepherdstown as a high school student and was immediately drawn to its charm, rich history, and vibrant arts scene. When it came time to choose a college, Shepherd University quickly rose to the top of his list due to its small class sizes and emphasis on the arts. Read Josh's full story!

September Highlight - Myles Humphrey '17

Myles Humphrey came to Shepherd University in 2013 as a redshirt freshman and quickly made his mark. From the football field to the front lines of national security, he has transformed nearly two decades of athletic experience at Shepherd University into a career serving the United States as a Secret Service special agent. RAMS FIRST BUSINESS HIGHLIGHT

Meet Jake Mellow '17 & '19 — the talent behind Mellow Works Woodshop in Bunker Hill, WV. What started in 2015 as a student project for Shepherd's annual Art Market has grown into a thriving woodworking business now celebrating 10 years!

Jake creates handcrafted, one-of-a-kind woodturned pieces, kitchen tools, and small furniture that are as functional as they are artistic. You can find his custom work and signature pieces at artisan events across the Eastern Panhandle — or explore his work online.

Congrats on a decade of craftsmanship, Jake!
