Residents select meal plans when they select their housing on the Good Living Portal.

Commuters select meal plans on the Good Living Portal by selecting "Commuter Meal Plan Request" from the menu.

- Unused meals on the Gold and Blue plans expire each week on Saturday mornings.
- Unused meals in the Ram, Shepherd, and Den Block plans expire at the end of each semester.
- Unused dining dollars transfer between Fall and Spring semesters, but expire after each Spring semester
- Meal plans can be changed during the first two weeks of each semester; meal plans can be added at any time.

Shepherd offers dining options from one end of campus to the other, with Riverside Market on west campus, and the Ram's Den and the Fireside Bistro (serving Starbucks) on east campus. A meal plan is not just the meals you eat. It is the convenience of the meals you can eat.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The Accessibility Services Office assists students individually with a variety of needs to achieve their academic and social potential by facilitating the use of reasonable and documented accommodations. Requests and approvals of any dining or housing accommodations are managed through Accessibility Services.

This includes single rooms, emotional support and service animals, and access accommodations. Learn more about Housing Accommodations: 304-876-5122
